

Oaks Harmony • 107 - 121 Quay Street

Built on the site of the former Her Majesty's Theatre which closed in January 2001, Oaks Harmony was designed by architects Marchese & Partners and completed in July 2004. It is a well-positioned building in the popular Haymarket - Chinatown area of the city. Oaks Harmony is a mixed use development comprising of residential and hotel units, with 50 hotel rooms and 147 residential apartments.

Apartments feature sleek interiors and generously proportioned living spaces throughout. The building also boasts a lawn and garden area for residents and guests to enjoy.

Conveniently located in Sydney's fabulous Chinatown, Oaks Harmony Apartments Sydney is just minutes away from Darling Harbour and Central Station and just a short stroll to the CBD and close to Queen Victoria Building.

Configurations;

- 17 Level
- 197 Residential Units
- 9 Studio Apartments
- 37 One bedroom Apartments
- 27 One bedroom plus study Apartments
- 86 Two bedroom Apartments
- 14 Two bedroom plus study Apartments
- 17 Three bedrooms Apartments

Facilities:

- 24 Hour Concierge
- 20 metre Indoor heated Swimming Pool
- Gymnasium
- Games room
- Spa
- Sauna