

Marble Arch • 119 - 123 York Street

Marble Arch is an 8 level boutique residential building that was converted in 1972. The property was later refurbished to incorporate 30 studio units in 1980. Full of charm and character with solid walls and high ceilings reminisce of apartments in European cities.

Marble Arch is so centrally located for the city, many of the apartments overlook the world famous Queen Victoria Building and is situated just seconds from Sydney's major shopping precincts with the closest transport hub being Town Hall Station.

Configurations;

- 8 Levels
- 30 Studio Apartments