

Parklane Towers • 1 Boomerang Place

Certainly a development to watch as more and more Sydney-siders seek out not just better developments but those with great views and within walking distance to the city. It offers the convenience of a city lifestyle, but with the outlook of the suburbs.

Parklane Towers ticks all boxes with many apartments benefitting with views over Cook Park and Phillip Park and at a fraction of the price compared to some other developments around Hyde Park.

The development was completed in 1982 by Civil and Civic and is made up of two residential buildings that are located on the corner of Boomerang Place and William Place. The building also boasts a rooftop viewing area offering 360 degree views of Sydney and the harbour.
