

Regency Hyde Park • 281 Elizabeth Street

The Regency Hyde Park completed in 1997 is located on the prestigious Elizabeth Street near the Liverpool intersection. Once the site of four buildings which were demolished in 1995 but the façade of House of Andrews to Castlereagh Street was retained as part of the new development. The lobby and common parts of the building underwent a refurbishment in 2012.

East facing apartments (Elizabeth Street frontage) have views over Hyde Park whilst higher-level apartments also enjoy uninterrupted and sweeping views over St. Mary's Cathedral, Woolloomooloo Bay and Sydney Harbour to the Heads. Whilst west facing apartments (Castlereagh Street frontage) enjoy views of the city skyline.

All apartments boast state of the art kitchens fitted with stainless steel appliances and spacious bathrooms fitted out with marble walls and floor tiles.
