

Regis Towers • Castlereagh Street & Pitt Street

Regis Tower is one of the largest developments in Australia which is a mixed use complex formed by three towers on Pitt Street, Castlereagh Street and Campbell Street. The site was a former commercial factory and workshop which were demolished in 1996 and was developed by Meriton.

Pitt tower is a 30 storey residential tower comprising 136 two and three bedroom apartments and 17 commercial suites completed in January 1998.

Castlereagh Tower is a 35 storey residential tower located to the north facing Castlereagh Street containing 270 two and three bedroom units, completed in November 1998.

Campbell Tower is a 29 level residential apartment building completed in August 1999 containing 139 serviced apartments.

Configurations;

- 545 Residential Apartments
- 139 Serviced Apartments

Facilities:

- 24 Hour Concierge / Security
- Squash court
- Indoor Swimming Pools
- Gymnasium