IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING PETS FOR NEW AND CURRENT RENTERS

If you have a pet or intend to get one during your Renter, you should get permission from the Rental Provider and include the permission as a term of the lease before moving In.

If your pet causes damage or nuisance, or the property has not been kept in a reasonable clean condition because of your pet, your Rental Provider agent may give you a notice for breach of duty. This notice may require you to:

- fix the damage, or
- Ensure the nuisance or poor property condition does not happen again.

If there was agreement for the pet to be kept, this notice may also require you to remove the pet from the property.

What reasonable grounds will VCAT consider for the removal of the pet?

Before arriving at a decision, VCAT will consider the following factors:

- The type of pet the renter wants to keep, or is keeping, on the property
- The character and nature of the property itself, including appliances, fixtures and fittings
- Whether refusing consent to keep the pet on the property is allowed under any Act
