CONDITIONS OF SALE - DECLARATION:

- The name of the vendor must be the same as the name of the Registered Owner which the horse is currently registered with the Society. The Registered Owner must be a financial for 2020 to nominate a horse in the sale. The transfer fee for sold horses will be deducted from the sale proceeds. It is the responsibility of the Vendor to check accuracy of the details printed in the sale catalogue in respect of the Vendor &/or the horse nomination & bring to the attention of the auctioneer any error or defect. The Australian Stock Horse Society Limited does not accept any responsibility for loss or damage suffered by a Vendor in respect of any such error or defect.
- A Society Inspector appointed for sale will inspect each horse prior to being paraded for the sale. It is the responsibility of the owner to ensure the horse is presented for inspection. The original Certificate of Registration must be delivered to the Society Inspector at time of inspection. TO AVOID REJECTION - It is the responsibility of the owner to ensure the horse's Certificate of Registration is correct and the identity of the horse can be verified at time of inspection under the Society's Verification of Brands and Marking Policies.
- The stock brand, identification and year number MUST BE clearly visible on the horse. The brands on the Certificate must be the same characters as the brands on the horse's Certificate of Registration. Colour sex, brands and markings on the Certificate of Registration must be consistent with the horse presented for inspection. A horse would be REJECTED if the Society Inspector has identified a SIGNIFICANT MARKING or BRAND DISCREPANCY whereby any other person could dispute the identity of the horse.
- The Inspector may REJECT a horse from the sale if the horse does not comply with the following: Horse should be prepared and presented suitably, be free of undesirable characteristics and conformation faults.
- Mandatory testing for Genetic Disorders is in a phase-in stage with the Society and has commenced. Horses recording a positive result for Genetic Disorders as a carrier or affected, with the Society or other Associations, must be disclosed at sales (private or auction) and all breeding opportunities. Vendors should refer to the Rules & Regulations, Section 3 – Registration of Horses, rule 13.
- All stallions or colts, 4 years and over, at time of sale must be Sire Registered, DNA Recorded and 6 panel Genetic Disorder Tested.
- VENDOR'S DISCLOSURE – Genetic Disorders, Cryptorchids, Windsucking, wobblers, roarers, retained embryos or semen must be disclosed in the vendor's remarks and printed in the sale catalogue. In situations whereby facts are not known at time of printing, the vendor is responsible for ensuring the agent and potential purchasers are aware of any such facts.
- Remarks on the horse should be restricted to a maximum of forty words. Comments found to be excessive will be shortened. References to other breeds are not permitted during the sale or in the catalogue.
- DRUGS POLICY - All horses competing in Australian Stock Horse Society (ASHS) events or being offered at ASH Approved Sales are subject to a No Prohibited Substance rule. This means, no Prohibited Substance is to be administered to the horse in the time before an event or sale such that it, or any ingredient or metabolism of it, might be present in the horse, might be detectable in its blood, saliva and/or urine samples, or might have any effect on its performance at the time of the event or sale. A veterinary certificate DOES NOT override or waive the No Prohibited Substance rule. I understand horses may be randomly drug tested.
- Vendors are responsible for ensuring the contact details, taxation information (ABN & Business name or hobbyist) and sale proceeds instructions are accurately provided to the sale agent for the purpose of the sale. Any person involved with handling the horse on the day of the sale, within the perimeter of the grounds, must be a competition eligible financial member of the Society, or a temporary member.
- Neither the organising committee nor The Australian Stock Horse Society Limited accept any liability for any accident, damage, injury to horses, riders, beasts, ground, spectators, or any other person or property whatsoever. The information supplied on the Certificate is based on details provided by Members for the purpose of the Society's record keeping. Whilst exercising due care, the Society is unable to guarantee the accuracy or authenticity of such information and cannot accept any responsibility.
- In signing this form, I/we agree for the Society to effect an official transfer for any horses listed as sold and this form will be a Transfer Form for the purposes of effecting the Transfer. The Vendor irrevocably appoints the agent the attorney of the Vendor to sign on behalf of the Vendor

By signing this form, I/we have read and acknowledge the Conditions for Approved ASH Sales and agree to act in accordance with The Australian Stock Horse Society Limited Rules & Regulations, Code of Conduct and ASHS policies.
