Daniel Pym

Director and Senior Mortgage Broker

Home Loans

Investment Loans

SMSF

Insurance

With more than 17 years of experience as a mortgage broker in Sydney's eastern suburbs, Daniel Pym is perfectly placed to give you all the information you need about home loans.

A family man with two children, Daniel purchased his home 9 years ago. By making extra loan repayments, consolidating debts, and taking out fixed terms and appropriate insurances, he is focused on protecting his family's future - and he can help you to make the same decisions.

Daniel's financial planning experience sets him apart. Daniel can find the perfect home loan for you and streamline your personal finances - giving you more control over your money and the freedom to enjoy the life you love.

Whether you're buying or selling a property, Daniel can support you through the entire mortgage process. Regardless of whether you are a first-home buyer, an investor or looking to refinance, he can help you.

Daniel's daughter has a rare genetic condition and the challenges this brings gives him a "make the most of every day" attitude to life - whether dealing with family matters or clients:

"I take great pride helping clients buy their home, renovate, buy an investment property, structure their finances to be affordable, make sure they get the best deal, insure themselves and their incomes and make the most of their superannuation."

Daniel holds a Diploma of Financial Services in Finance/Mortgage Broking Management and Financial Planning, and an Advanced Diploma of Financial Services in Financial Planning. In his rare downtime Daniel is addicted to fitness, rugby, the occasional beer and spending time with his family.

// Very quickly after meeting Daniel, we felt extremely comfortable that he was synchronised to what we were trying to achieve. Such is our confidence in Daniel, we have entrusted him to broker mortgages for three additional properties. We highly recommend the services of Daniel to both owner-occupiers and investors alike. //
