Making Sense - April 2020

By Ron Bauer

Sales Report:

There is so much more to try to make sense of these days! Too much to squeeze in here – and nor should we try. The purpose of this article is to shine a spotlight of how the local market is going, not try to break down the overall Corona-economy. And here it is; the underlying factor is that buyers and sellers do not sit still, so sales are being made. But “at what prices?” I hear you ask.

With talk already about easing restrictions, our market in the lucrative Eastern Suburbs is ever-optimistic in the face of positive news. There's no doubt that many people are doing it tough, most have been impacted with only the extent being the variable. So while the mood is rightfully more subdued, perhaps so too the prices, but the evidence is far from clear if there has been a meaningful drop. Perhaps a marginal correction at this point, with most expecting a 'bounce' perhaps as soon as in just a few months.

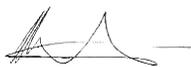

Property Management Report

This is where the difficulties lie. 25% of our tenants have requested rent assistance. We predict that a further 8-10% will be vacant within a month. Our Property Managers are performing admirably under enormous pressure. Negotiating between the sometimes-dire circumstances of tenants and the sometimes equally difficult situations of our clients/landlords. There is no one-bullet solution - communication, tolerance and generosity on both sides is required to navigate these uncharted waters.

It may be years before rents return to their former highs but... we have some optimism that by Spring there may be a little relief. A key factor will be the resurrection of the hospitality industry. There is a large representation of tenants from this sector, hopefully they will be returned to work sooner than later.

And we look forward to discussing what this market may mean for you anytime.

Yours faithfully,
