

Client Edition Ray White Unlimited | Bondi Beach

Making Sense – October 2021

By Ron Bauer

Sales:

Fresh with news as it's occurring, there has definitely been a shift in the market. We just had a record month, selling a solid number of properties and many for unbelievable record prices (including a pair of apartments I was privileged to market on Lamrock Avenue which we sold for $7,260,000, more than $1m above the reserve price) - but... yes, there's a 'but'. All of a sudden and coinciding with 'freedom day/week/month', things have quietened down noticeably. As we predicted, if more properties hit the market - and they have, it could flatten prices - and they have. The question before us, is this a blip or is the best behind us? Only time will tell as we roll into 2022.

Property Management:

As we swoon at the dramatic price rises over the last 12-18 months, it's worth recognising how amazing property is as an investment. Buying a property can be almost totally passive. You buy it, hand the keys to your trusted local property manager and you really could forget about it for years. Initially there may be some financial outlay but it's mitigated by negative gearing and over time - all by itself - it eventually becomes cash positive and provides an income. All the while, increasing in actual value. Doubling pretty much every 10 years on an average - as it has done for the last 100 years by the way. How many of us say, "if only we'd bought then!" We'll be saying that again about now in only a few years time!

And we look forward to discussing what this market may mean for you anytime!

Yours faithfully,

Ray White Unlimited | Bondi Beach
